UT join First “Taiwan-UK Higher Education Forum” in London, Britain, September 20

In order to promote UT’s internationalization and develop its global connection, the vice president Prof. Yuan-fan Ou and our Dean Prof. Sabina Shu-Chun Chiang went to London to participate the “2019 Taiwan-UK Higher Education Forum”, which was held on Friday, September 20 in London, England. It was jointly organized by the Foundation for International Cooperation in Higher Education of Taiwan and the Universities UK. The event brought together 87 participants (Taiwan: 49; UK: 38) from 47 universities (Taiwan: 17; UK: 30) from both sides with 23 presidents and vice presidents. Collaborations of research and student mobility are center of the forum, our delegates also visited the Oxford University, London Queen Mary University, Imperial College London, and the UUK and talked with leaders of these institutions. We also invited British scholars and student to apply Yushan Project in Taiwan.
