Happy Birthday University of Taipei

For UT's 125th anniversary, we were honored to invite some foreign delegates and international scholars to join our celebration on November 30th. The invited diplomatic service officers are Dr. Jérôme Bove, Attaché for Scientific and Academic Cooperation of the French Office in Taipei, Ms. Marie Leflerova, Head of Science and Research Section of the Czech Economic and Cultural Office, Ms. Sharon Ho Swee Peng, President of the Malaysian Friendship and Trade Center, Dr. Thomas Heinrich Prinz, Director General of the German Institute Taipei, Mr. Patrick Rumlar, Representative of the Czech Economic and Cultural Office, and Ms. Sylvia Shih, Trade Commissioner for Innovation and Education of the Canadian Trade Office in Taipei. The invited scholars are Dr. James E. Hinterlong, Professor and Visiting Scholar of the College of Management at Tunghai University, Dr. Kristina Kironka, Senior Researcher of Palacky University Olomouc, and Dr. Roman Shapiro, Associate Professor of the Department of Chinese Studies at Masaryk University (alphabetized by last name). We sincerely appreciated the participation of those distinguished guests.

Unaffected by the pandemic, we had various celebration activities as usual, including musical performance, acrobatic lion dance, Chinese flag dance, sports day, and school fair. With our proactive prevention strategies and measures against COVID-19, all the students, faculty, and guests had a wonderful time in a safe way!
