

Taiwan Scholarship –

Outstanding Graduate Award to a Malaysian Dietitian Studying at UT

Newsletter June 2020

Tania Xu Yar Lee, a sports dietitian in Malaysia national sports team, studied for a master's degree in the Institute of Sports Sciences, University of Taipei. In the 2019 National Intercollegiate Athletic Games, Tania Xu Yar Lee broke Women's 200m Medley record, winning first place. Being an athlete and dietitian, she attained her successful accomplishment with her nutrition knowledge and swim performance.

Tania Xu Yar Lee attended the Ministry of Education (MOE) Taiwan Scholarship Program and studied for her master's degree at the University of Taipei. The Taiwan Scholarship Program was established to encourage international students to study in Taiwan. This year Taiwan Scholarship and Huayu Enrichment Scholarship Program present the Outstanding Graduate Award to Tania Xu Yar Lee for her outstanding Academic and Competition Service while studying in Taiwan.

Students who are interested in the Taiwan Scholarship Program can check out the link below. <https://tafs.mofa.gov.tw/SchDetailed.aspx?loc=en&ItemId=15>

The University of Taipei is a great place for any student to thrive!

